Project applications will be considered by BCTF staff and a BCTF Full-Time Table Officer. Selection will be made based on a variety of criteria including topic/rationale, geographic balance, a commitment to the inquiry process and to the annual BCTF Leadership Priorities set at the Annual General Meeting, which include the following:

- a. safeguard and improve the health, safety, rights, and security of all members;
- b. continue to address barriers in our structures through decolonization and antiracism work;
- c. organize and engage members toward activism and advocacy;
- d. promote a sustainable future for public education.

Your responsibilities as the TIP Project Co-ordinator:

- Co-ordinate the following:
 - work with the BCTF TIP facilitator to determine meeting dates
 - determine meeting location and book meeting room
 - technology equipment needed by the BCTF TIP facilitator (projector/screen)
 - provide photocopies of materials as needed by the BCTF TIP facilitator
 - provide refreshments for TIP participants at each meeting.
- Organize the final celebration to share out the group’s inquiry projects:
 - share your learning with your PSA
 - share your learning at PSAC.
- Upon completion of the BCTF TIP project:
 - collect and return to the BCTF the TIP participant’s project summaries from the celebration event which will be shared on the BCTF TIP website
 - project summaries may appear as a PowerPoint, summary report document, video/multi-media, etc.
- Submit feedback of the TIP project and a breakdown of the budget expenditures to the BCTF.

Responsibilities of BCTF TIP facilitator:

- Contact TIP Project Co-ordinator when project has been approved.
- Plan the agenda and organize materials for each inquiry session.
- Facilitate each of the inquiry sessions.

Please list names of all inquiry project participants (must be six–eight people)
